PRELIMINARY PROSPECTUS DATED May 22, 1997

THE COOPER COMPANIES, INC.
144,800 Shares of Common Stock
($.10 Par Value Per Share)

This Prospectus relates to up to 144,800 shares (the "Shares") of common stock, par value $.10 per share (the "Common Stock"), of The Cooper Companies, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and the Rights ("Rights") to acquire the Company's Series A Junior Participating Preferred Stock that are attached to and trade with the Common Stock, which may be offered for sale by certain stockholders of the Company (the "Selling Stockholders"). The Common Stock and the Rights are herein collectively referred to as the "Securities". See "Plan of Distribution."

The Company will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale of the Securities. FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This Prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference herein contain projections and other forward-looking statements within the meanings of Section 27A of the Securities Act and Section 21E of the Exchange Act, which statements involve risks and uncertainties. Actual results could differ materially from these projections as a result of certain factors, including major changes in business conditions and the economy in general, loss of key members of senior management, new competitive inroads, costs to integrate acquisitions, dilution to earnings and earnings per share associated with acquisitions and stock issuances, decisions to invest in research and development projects, regulatory issues, unexpected changes in reimbursement rates and payer mix, unforeseen litigation, costs associated with potential debt restructuring, decisions to divest businesses and the cost of acquisition activity, particularly if a large acquisition is not completed. Future results are also dependent on each business unit meeting specific objectives.

THE COMPANY

The Company, through its primary subsidiaries (CooperVision, Inc., CooperSurgical, Inc. ("CooperSurgical") and Hospital Group of America, Inc.), develops, manufactures and markets healthcare products, including a range of contact lenses and diagnostic and surgical instruments, equipment and accessories, and provides healthcare services through the ownership and operation of certain psychiatric facilities. The principal executive offices of the Company are located at 6140 Stoneridge Mall Road, Suite 590, Pleasanton, California 94588, (510) 460-3600.

RISK FACTORS

Price Volatility and Shares Available for Future Sale

The market price of the Common Stock may be subject to significant fluctuations in response to, among other things, the factors discussed above under "Forward-Looking Statements," variations in quarterly operating results, failure to meet published estimates of, or changes in earnings estimates by, the Company or securities analysts, and other factors. In addition, the securities markets have experienced significant price and volume fluctuations from time to time in recent years that have often been unrelated or disproportionate to the operating performance of particular companies. These broad fluctuations could affect the market price of the Common Stock.

The Company has outstanding options to purchase approximately 770,000 shares of Common Stock, approximately 480,000 of which are currently exercisable. If these options are exercised, the issuance of such shares of Common Stock would dilute the proportionate voting power and equity interests of the other holders of Common Stock. In addition, sales of substantial amounts of Common Stock, including the sale by the Company of all or a substantial portion of the shares of Common Stock registered hereunder, or the sale by Cooper Life Sciences ("CLS") of all or a substantial portion of the approximately 1,400,000 shares of Common Stock it beneficially owns (which are registered for resale on a registration statement under the Securities Act), or the perception that such sales could occur, could adversely affect prevailing market prices for the Common Stock.

Significant Stockholder

CLS currently owns approximately 12% of the Company's issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock. In addition, pursuant to a settlement agreement with the Company entered into on June 14, 1993, CLS has the right to designate two of the eight members of the Company's Board of Directors so long as CLS owns at least 800,000 shares of Common Stock, and one director so long as CLS owns at least 333,333 shares of Common Stock. A third member of the Company's Board of Directors, Moses Marx, owns a majority of the outstanding stock of CLS. By virtue of their representation on the Company's Board of Directors and CLS' significant ownership of Common Stock, CLS and Mr. Marx may have significant influence over the affairs of the Company.

THE SELLING STOCKHOLDERS

The Securities to be offered under this Prospectus are owned by the Selling Stockholders listed in the table below. The Selling Stockholders acquired the Securities in connection with the merger of Marlow Surgical Technologies, Inc., an Ohio corporation ("Marlow"), with and into Marlow Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of the Company ("Acquisition Sub"), pursuant to the terms of an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of April 3, 1997, among the Company, Acquisition Sub, Marlow and certain shareholders of Marlow (the "Merger Agreement"). Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, the Company agreed to file a registration statement covering the Securities with the Commission.

Because the Selling Stockholders may sell all or some portion of the Securities covered by this Prospectus, no estimate can be given as to the number of Shares, and the percentage of outstanding shares of Common Stock, that will be held by any of them after any particular sale.

The following table identifies each Selling Stockholder and sets forth information as of May 22, 1997 with respect to the Shares held and to be offered under this Prospectus from time to time by each Selling Stockholder. Clifford A. Marlow, Scott C. Marlow and Mike Lanese are an Executive Vice President, the Director of Product Development and a sales representative, respectively, of CooperSurgical.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The Securities are being sold by the Selling Stockholders for their own account, and the Company will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale of the Securities.

The distribution of the Securities by the Selling Stockholders may be effected from time to time by the Selling Stockholders directly or through one or more brokers, agents, or dealers in one or more transactions (which may involve crosses and block transactions) on the NYSE, the PSE or other exchanges on which the Common Stock is listed, pursuant to and in accordance with the rules of such exchanges, in the over-the-counter market, in negotiated transactions or otherwise, at prices related to prevailing market prices or at negotiated prices. In the event that one or more brokers, agents or dealers agree to sell the Securities, they may do so by purchasing Securities as principals or by selling Securities as agents for a Selling Stockholder. Any such brokers, agents or dealers who effect a sale of the Securities may be deemed to be "underwriters" within the meaning of the Securities Act. Any such broker, agent or dealer (i) may receive compensation from the Selling Stockholders which may be deemed to be underwriting discounts or commissions and (ii) may receive commissions from purchasers of the Securities for whom it may act as agent. If any such broker or dealer purchases the Securities as principal it may effect resales of the Securities from time to time to or through other brokers or dealers, and such other brokers or dealers may receive compensation in the form of concessions or commissions from the Selling Stockholder or purchaser of the Securities for whom they may act as agents.

The Company has advised each of the Selling Stockholders that it and any such brokers, dealers or agents who effect a sale of the Securities are subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act. The Company also has advised each of the Selling Stockholders that in the event of a "distribution" of its Securities, such Selling Stockholder and any broker, agent or dealer who participates in such distribution may be subject to applicable provisions of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder, including without limitation Rule 10b-6.

In connection with distributions of the Securities, the Selling Stockholders may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers, and the broker-dealers may engage in short sales of the Common Stock in the course of hedging the positions they assume with the Selling Stockholders. The Selling Stockholders also may sell the Common Stock short and deliver the Securities to close out such short positions. The Selling Stockholders also may enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers that involve the delivery of the Securities to the broker-dealers, who may then resell or otherwise transfer such Securities. The Selling Stockholders also may loan or pledge the Securities to a broker-dealer and the broker-dealer may sell the Securities so loaned or upon a default may sell or otherwise transfer the pledged Securities.

The Company will bear all expenses of the offering of the Securities, except that the Selling Stockholders will pay any applicable underwriting fees, discounts or commissions and transfer taxes, as well as the fees and disbursements of counsel to and experts for the Selling Stockholders.

LEGAL MATTERS

The legality of the Securities offered hereby will be passed upon for the Company by Latham & Watkins, San Francisco, California.

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The Company is a Delaware corporation. Subsection (b)(7) of Section 102 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL") enables a corporation in its original certificate of incorporation or an amendment thereto to eliminate or limit the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for violations of the director's fiduciary duty, except (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) pursuant to Section 174 of the DGCL (providing for liability of directors for unlawful payment of dividends or unlawful stock purchases or redemptions) or (iv) for any transaction from which a director derived an improper personal benefit.

Article X of the Company's Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, provides that a director shall not be liable to the Company or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of duty as a director, except under the circumstances listed in (i) through (iv) above and further provides that if the DGCL is amended to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, the liability of a director of the Company shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL, as so amended.

Subsection (a) of Section 145 of the DGCL empowers a corporation to indemnify any director or officer, or former director or officer, who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation), against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred in connection with such action, suit or proceeding provided that such director or officer acted in good faith in a manner reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, provided further that such director or officer had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

Subsection (b) of Section 145 empowers a corporation to indemnify any director or officer, or former director or officer, who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that such person acted in any of the capacities set forth above, against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit provided that such director or officer acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification may be made in respect to any claim, issue or matter as to which such director or officer shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all of the circumstances of the case, such director or officer is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper.

Section 145 further provides that to the extent a director or officer of a corporation has been successful in the defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsections (a) and (b) or in the defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith; that indemnification and advancement of expenses provided for, by, or granted pursuant to Section 145 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which the indemnified party may be entitled; and empowers the corporation to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of a director or officer of the corporation against any liability asserted against him or incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liabilities under Section 145.

Paragraph (b) of Article X of the Company's Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, provides that each person who was or is made a party to or is threatened to be made party to, or is otherwise involved in, any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer or employee of the Company (or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee or agent for another entity) while serving in such capacity shall, except in certain lawsuits initiated by such persons, be indemnified and held harmless by the Company, to the full extent authorized by the DGCL, as in effect (or, to the extent authority for indemnification is broadened, as it may be amended) against all expense, liability or loss (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts to be paid in settlement) reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith. Paragraph (b) further provides that rights conferred thereby shall be contract rights and shall include the right to be paid by the Company the expenses incurred in defending the proceedings specified above, in advance of their final disposition, provided that, if the DGCL so requires, such payment shall only be made upon delivery to the Company by the indemnified party of an undertaking to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined that the person receiving such payments is not entitled to be indemnified under Paragraph (b) or otherwise. Paragraph (b) provides that the Company may, by action of its employees.

Board of Directors, provide indemnification to its agents with the same scope and effect as the foregoing indemnification of directors, officers and

Paragraph (b) provides that persons indemnified thereunder may bring suit against the Company to recover unpaid amounts claimed thereunder, and that if such suit is successful, the expense of bringing such suit shall be reimbursed by the Company. Paragraph (b) further provides that while it is a defense to such a suit that the person claiming indemnification has not met the applicable standards of conduct making indemnification permissible under the DGCL, the burden of proving the defense shall be on the Company and neither the failure of the Company's Board of Directors to have made a determination that indemnification is proper, nor an actual determination by the Board of Directors that the claimant has not met the applicable standard of conduct, shall be a defense to the action or create a presumption that the claimant has not met the applicable standard of conduct.

Paragraph (b) provides that the right to indemnification and the payment of expenses incurred in defending a proceeding in advance of its final disposition shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or acquire under any statute, provision of the Company's Certificate of Incorporation or By-Laws, or otherwise.

Paragraph (b) also provides that the Company may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any of its directors, officers, employees or agents against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the DGCL.

Finally, Paragraph (b) provides that the Company may enter into indemnification contracts consistent with its provisions. However, the existence of a contract is not a precondition to indemnification under Paragraph (b).

Article VII, Section 7 of the By-Laws of the Company provides:

"The Corporation shall indemnify, to the extent permitted by the General Corporation Law of Delaware as amended from time to time, (a) each of its present and former officers and Directors, and (b) each of its present or former officers, Directors, agents or employees who are serving or have served at the request of this corporation as an officer, Director or partner (or in any similar position) of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorney's fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred in connection with any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether by or in the right of this corporation by a third party or otherwise, to which such person is made a party or threatened to be made a party by reason of such office in this Corporation or in another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise. Such indemnification shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of any indemnified person.

To the extent permitted by the General Corporation Law of Delaware, under general or specific authority granted by the Board of Directors, (a) this Corporation by specific action of the Board of Directors may furnish such indemnification to its agents and employees with respect to their activities on behalf of this Corporation; (b) this Corporation by specific action of the Board of Directors may furnish such indemnification to each present or former officer, director, employee or agent of a constituent corporation absorbed in a consolidation or merger with this Corporation and to each officer, director, agent or employee who is or was serving at the request of such constituent corporation as an officer, director, agent or employee of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise; and (c) this corporation may purchase and maintain indemnification insurance on behalf of any of the officers, directors, agents or employees whom it is required or permitted to indemnify as provided in this Article."

The Company maintains insurance covering itself and its officers and directors against certain liabilities incurred in their capacities as such.

(3) To remove from registration, by means of a post-effective amendment, any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act, and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer, or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered hereunder, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
