CooperCompanies Appoints Mark Drury as New Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary and Announces Randal L. Golden to Retire

SAN RAMON, Calif., Feb. 07, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- CooperCompanies (NYSE: COO) today announced that Mark Drury has been appointed Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary effective February 15, 2020, reporting to Albert G. White, President and Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Drury joined CooperCompanies in January of 2011 and is currently the company's Deputy General Counsel with responsibility for CooperVision's global legal function along with certain corporate matters. Mr. Drury succeeds Randal L. Golden who announced his plans to retire after many successful years with the company. As part of a smooth transition, Randy will continue to serve in a legal advisory role until February 1, 2021.

"I am very pleased to have Mark join our executive team," said Mr. White. "Mark has a proven track record of success and his strong leadership skills will ensure our Legal Department remains well positioned to support the organization's growth into the future."

"On behalf of CooperCompanies, I want to thank Randy for his years of dedicated service," continued Mr. White. "Randy was instrumental in building CooperCompanies' legal function and we greatly appreciate everything he has done and wish him the very best in retirement."

Prior to joining CooperCompanies, Mr. Drury was an attorney with Latham & Watkins after completing both his MBA and JD from the University of California at Berkeley. Mr. Drury lives with his family in the San Francisco Bay Area and will continue to be based at the corporate headquarters in San Ramon, California.
